

To Our Customers:

We currently charge sales tax on items within jurisdictions where we are legally required to do so. The tax is based on applicable state and local tax laws and rates. Sales tax collected from customers is remitted to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction and required schedule.

Many state and local tax jurisdictions periodically change their laws in this regard. As these laws change, we update the amount of sales tax charged in order to be in compliance with all current tax laws.

Taylor Made Specialties